Requirements to Vote, Run In City Election on Sept. 21

Election day for the Greenbelt City Council is just three months away, on September 21, to be exact. All citizens should be aware of the requirements to make them eligible to vote or run for office. Do you know, for example whether you are qualified to vote, or how to nominate the candidate of your choice, or when and where to register?

Here are the regulations for citizen participation in Greenbelt City elections.

Anyone who is eligible to vote in Greenbelt City elections is eligible to run for one of the five seats on the city Council. ELECTION DAY is September 21, 1965, the term of office is two years.

Registration

REGISTRATION DAY for voters is ANY DAY, from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.—just go to the city offices and sign up with the city clerk. If you work during the day and can't register then, wait until special registration days are announced later in the summer. During special registration days the city clerk will sign you up during the evening.

Once you have registered for Greenbelt elections, you need not register again as long as you live here continuously, provided you have voted in at least one of the two previous city elections. If you've never registered here or if you moved out of town and then moved back or if you missed voting in two elections, it will be necessary to register again under the same provisions for eligibility.

Eligibility

To be eligible to vote in Greenbelt council elections you must be a citizen of the United States, at least 21 years of age, must have lived in Greenbelt at least six months and in the State of Maryland at least one year immediately preceding the election. Employees of the U. S. government, residing in Greenbelt are eligible to vote in the city election and run for city council posts, even though they normally vote in another state for state and national elections.

If you — or your candidate — are eligible to vote, here's what must be done to get a place on the ballot for City Councilman:

1-Get at least 3% and not more than 5% of the qualified registered voters to sign a nomination petition form, or get some from the city clerk; she also has an information form that will be helpful. You may use one sheet of paper or several.

2-Submit the signed petition to her (together with a $3 filing fee) not earlier than July 23 and not later than August 23 at 5 p.m. Only registered voter's signatures are valid, and a voter may sign only ONE nomination petition even though he may vote for five candidates. Therefore, the city clerk will disqualify a voters' signature on the second and all subsequent petitions she receives on which it appears.

This means a voter should think twice before signing a nomination petition for someone he isn't really eager to back; it would make him unable to nominate anyone else. This also means that the candidate (or the backers of a candidate) who file their petitions early in the July 23 - August 23 period will have more time in which to get additional signatures to validate the petition.

Married women signers of petitions should use the form Mary Doe, not Mrs. John Doe. The records show them as Mary Doe and if the city clerk doesn't recognize the name in its married form, she may not be able to check and accept it.

3-Within 7 days of filing of a valid petition, the city clerk notifies the candidate. The latter then has 7 days within which to accept the nomination. (In some cases, petitions are circulated without the candidates say-so.) The ballot carries all persons nominated this way. But you can write them in when you vote.

That's all there is to it. On September 21 there will be an election. If five candidates fail to win a majority of the votes cast, there will be a run-off election 7 days later. In the second election there shall be printed on the ballot twice as many names as there are positions to be filled, from the remaining candidates polling, in order, the largest number of votes in the first election. In this election the remaining positions shall be filled by declaring elected the several candidates polling the largest number of votes.

Classes at Springhill On Family Nutrition

Having problems feeding your children? The Cooperative Extension Service is sponsoring free classes to help young homemakers feed their families better and easier.

The classes will be held July 12-16, 10 a.m.-11 a.m., Springhill Lake Community House. Everyone is welcome. Free babysitting for 3-5 year olds will be provided.

You will learn . . .
What foods we need
How to introduce new foods to children
How to help the child who does not like to eat
How to be a good shopper
How to plan interesting meals
There will be many more tips, as well, to help you feed your families better and easier.

Registration is requested. Contact the Cooperative Extension Office, 3415 N. Forest Edge Rd., Upper Marlboro, Maryland 736-0327, for further information and registration.

P.G. Building Inspector

Appointment of Joseph E. Bartell as new Chief Building Inspector for Prince Georges County was announced today by Commissioner Frank J. Lastner, liaison with the Inspections Department.

In reporting the appointment to the Board of Commissioners, Lastner pointed out, "we are indeed fortunate that a man of the caliber of Mr. Bartell, and one nationally known in his field, is joining our County staff."

Bartell, who will assume his new office August 2, has served with the Building Officials Conference of America since 1958, and as its technical director has researched and kept up to date the model BOCA code on construction, to which Prince Georges has long subscribed.

John Hook, who has served as Acting Chief Building Inspector since July, 1964, will remain with the County as Deputy Chief Building Inspector.

"Players" To Meet

The Greenbelt Players will hold a meeting Tuesday, July 29 at 8 p.m. in the Youth Center. Officers will be elected for the coming season and future productions will be discussed. Those interested in any phase of little productions are invited to attend.

Sen. Tydings To Speak At University of Md.

Senator Joseph D. Tydings is one of two speakers scheduled for the University of Maryland's summer lecture series university officials announced today.

Peter F. Drucker, professor of management at the graduate business school of New York University is also scheduled to lecture.

Senator Tydings, a former student of the university, will appear in the Student Union Ballroom at 9:30 a.m., July 22. His topic will be "Strengthening State and Local Government: a National Problem."

Professor Drucker will lecture in the Student Union Ballroom on June 29 at 11 a.m. His topic will be "Education in the Educated Society."

The professor is also a management consultant specializing in business and economic policy and in management organization. He is author of numerous books and articles on political and economic subjects.

Both lectures are free and open to the public.

Soloist Concerts Honor Young Music Talent

The "Washington Area Soloist Festival," with the United States Navy Band will be held at a special Watergate Concert, Thursday evening, June 24, at 8:30 p.m. Each musician was chosen by his county music supervisor as the outstanding soloist in the county.

The five finalists to be presented on the program will be judged by a distinguished panel: Dr. John Paul, Head of the Music Department at The Catholic University of America, Dr. Wendall Margraves, Music Critic for The Washington Evening Star, and Mrs. Willa Mae Koehn, President of the Friday Morning Music Club of Washington, D.C.

It is hoped that this opportunity will serve as an inspiration for the many talented young people in the Washington area who aspire to a career in music, perhaps a career in Navy music. This festival will also serve as a reminder to the citizens in and around our Nation's Capital, that they should take pride in, and support the present high standards of their school's music programs.

July 5 Post Office Holiday Schedule

Post Master Emory A. Harman announced today that because Independence Day, July 4, falls on a Sunday this year the following day, Monday, July 5, will be observed as a holiday by all post offices and postal installations.

No window services will be provided and there will be no deliveries by city carriers. However, special delivery service will be provided and the holiday schedules for collection, receipt and dispatch of mail shall be observed.

MNCPPC Engineer Endorses Balanced Community--Homes and Apts. 50-50

Support for the concept of a balanced community of residential units has been voiced by William Dobbins, the Maryland National Capital Park and Planning Commission's chief planning engineer for Prince Georges County, according to a special report printed in last Sunday's Star. The statement appeared in an article prepared by staff reporter James Welsh dealing with the problems of a mushrooming Prince George's County.

POOL OPENS! BUT TOTS AND DIVERS MUST WAIT

Yesterday City Manager James Giese announced that, barring any unforeseen difficulties, the swimming pool would open today, Thursday, at 1 p.m. He noted, however, that the pool was still under construction and all facilities are not complete. The wading pool, still not completed, is scheduled for opening by the weekend. The new diving pool will probably not open for another week or so.

Giese also pointed out that since all electrical wiring is not complete, it may be necessary to close the pool at dusk. He further noted that because of the construction work, the pool is subject to being closed without notice.

The city asks the patience of its residents for any inconveniences caused by the swimming pool construction. By putting up with these difficulties, they will make it possible to open the pool at an earlier date than would otherwise be the case.

Grants To Universities

Congressman Carlton R. Sickles, (D-Md.), announced this week that the Federal Office of Education, under the Higher Education Facilities Act of 1963, has awarded a grant of $225,267 to the Johns Hopkins University Graduate Division in Baltimore for remodeling classrooms and office facilities in Gilman Hall and $441,000 to the University of Maryland in College Park to aid construction of a new animal science building.

"These grants will help to alleviate the shortage of graduate facilities that prevails in Maryland, and will enable these universities to continue to expand their graduate programs," Sickles said.

HOLY NAME CHAIRMAN

St. Hugh's Holy Name Society will be led by the following committee chairmen for the coming year, it was announced recently: Membership, James Foster; Retreat, Julius Chieppa; Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament, Vincent Puccio; Lay Lector, Charles T. McDonald; Program, Paul Donnelly; Sick and Vigil, Leo Aulisio; Resolutions, Walter Mann; Literature and Catholic Press, Lawrence Noel; Publicity, Michael Burchick; Arrangements, Stephen Smith; Catholic Action, Robert Murray.

Dobbins was asked what he believed should be the maximum percentage of apartment units in any area. "Neighborhood and communities should be balanced and diversified," he answered. "Any time you get more than 50 percent apartments, you lose balance. I think 35 to 40 percent should be the upper limit."

His views are of interest to Greenbelters who have been voicing their objection to the MNCPPC's Area 13 plan. Critics of the plan, including the Greenbelt City Council and Citizens for a Planned Greenbelt (CFPG), have pointed out that development of the Greenbelt area according to the Area 13 plan would create a catastrophic unbalance with more than 80 percent of the living units consisting of apartments and less than 20 percent owner-occupied.

Inconsistency Noted

The STAR article made note of this inconsistency as follows: "Despite the concept of diversity that Dobbins and many other planners defend, the commission's advanced planning section in Silver Spring turned out a hotly contested master plan that hews a far different course. Defended by Stevens and other top commission officials, the plan proposes no new areas of single-family homes in the Greenbelt area. Everything new of a residential nature would be apartments."

Right now zoning applications for more than 700 acres of apartments in this area are marking time, waiting for what happens to the master plan for Greenbelt.

FESTIVAL NEWS

Another feature of this year's Labor Day Festival will be displays by local organizations. All Greenbelt organizations—social, political, educational, recreational, welfare, service, economic, etc. — will have an opportunity to describe their activities and solicit members. These displays will be located in the Youth Center in the lounge and the general purpose room, alongside the art show, which will be the gymnasium.

Organizations wishing space to display their better side are asked to contact Jim Cassels at the Twin Pines office. There will be no charge for the use of the space for the three days.

Speaking Sternly . . . by David Stern

UNCLE MULCH

Now is the season when every newspaper worth reading—and a few that aren't—prominently carry a gardening column. Since it wouldn't do for the Greenbelt News-Review to lag behind, here we go, thusly:

Hi fans - I mean, fellow gardeners - this is your pal Uncle Mulch with a few tips and pointers about your gardens. Now is an important time of the year for us gardeners: too late for pre-emergence crabgrass killer to do much good but not too early to dig up the whole mess and cover it with green gravel, a method successfully initiated in Arizona where it saves many a gardener the chores of watering, fertilizing and mowing. If you do not plan such extreme measures remember that the weeds infesting your lawn look least conspicuous after a close mowing and even add a pleasant touch of green to those spots where the grass died away and which otherwise would have looked embarrassingly bare.

This is also the time to rake the leaves off the lawn in case you've found enough excuses not to do so last fall. The litter-gitter will come to pick them up around October.

And now to our weekly mail. Because of the large volume of letters received, your Uncle Mulch regrets not being able to answer each one personally and will only publish a few typical cases.

Q: What should I do about poison ivy growing in my garden hedge?

A: Before you get rid of poison ivy in your hedge make sure that you want it eliminated. Poison ivy is a proven deterrent to trashmen, newspaper boys and strange dogs taking shortcuts through your hedges and flowerbeds. If you still insist, cut it off near the roots and pull those out after the first frost in fall.

Q: My neighbor's dog digs up my flowering azaleas.

A: Your problem concerns the dog, not the flowers. This is a gardening column, darn it! Plant poison ivy in your hedge or spray the plant with dog repellent, if it's not too close to the house and your family doesn't mind the smell.

Q: Where can I get seeds of the oriental poppy?

A: Unfortunately for flower-lovers, the oriental poppy will not thrive in Maryland. However hemp grows very nicely here and its leaves lend the home garden a lush green appearance. Let's see what results you can do up out.

Q: A couple of years ago I planted my lawn with a new strain of Zoysia grass, guaranteed to drive out crabgrass. Well, it did. It also drove out daffodils, chrysanthemums, peonies, marigolds and african violets. It is now threatening the hedge, while my neighbor is threatening me, with a lawsuit. What can I do?

A: Zoysia grass has been imported from Japan where it is controlled by the Japanese beetle. A few of these beetles in your garden would rapidly solve your problems. All your problems, because they are also very fond of daffodils, mums, peonies, marigolds, african violets, etc.

So much for today, folks. Next week we'll discuss all you have to know about the cultivation of artificial roses. Till then, this is your Uncle Mulch

Golden Agers

Leo Mullen and his wife have moved to Fort Lauderdale, Fla. Mrs. L. H. Allen of 14H Parkway joined the club last Wednesday. Visitors are always welcome each Wednesday at 1 p.m. at the Recreation Center.

Another big dinner will be given later in the season, probably on the bay.

See the ad in this week's News about the carnival, which will be held at the North parking lot on July 5-10. Many new features have been added and the club is confident everyone will enjoy being in attendance. New names are being added to the list of persons desiring to make the trip to Miami Beach October 24 to November 1. A registration fee is required by August 15. The total cost of the trip will include transportation, lodging, and meals. See any club member for particulars or call Gr. 4-6353.

Pruning Guide Available

Does the shrubbery in your lawn look like a left-over set for a jungle movie? Maybe all it needs is pruning.

You can learn why, when, and how to prune—what to avoid when pruning and what equipment you will need from a new bulletin published by the University of Maryland called Pruning Ornamental Trees and Shrubs. Contact any county Extension Service office and ask for Extension Bulletin 150.

Recreation Dept

The Greenbelt Recreation Department is pleased to announce that the following staff has been engaged for the summer months.

William ("Bill") Edwards has returned again as manager of the swimming pool. Edwards is the holder of a water safety instructor certificate and has successfully completed the swimming pool operators' course.

Aiding Edwards, as assistant manager, will be Charles ("Duff") Marquardt. "Duff" has been on the pool staff since 1962. "Duff" is also a holder of a water safety instructor certificate and has completed the pool managers course.

Miss Mary Barcus will again act as the pool cashier and teach swimming lessons. Other members of the staff include Bob Oring, Jim Schlutz, Dennis Sisco, Tommy Fink, Dan Reuben, Lynn McCann and Trish Buess. Ken Voight will be in charge of the Concession Stand.

Again instructing tennis and archery will be Clint Bruess.

Supervising the Girls' Pony-Tail Softball League and afternoon Youth Center activities is Miss Jackie Hufendick.

Charles ("Chuck") Hitz will supervise and maintain the ball-fields and picnic areas.

League supervisor for the Men's Summer Basketball League and evening Youth Center programs is Ernie Black.

Newly added members of our staff are Miss Jane Beale and James Galvin. Miss Beale and Galvin will supervise the summer playground at the Center Elementary School.

A Good Job

To the Editor:

I'm an eleven-year-old member of the Poetry Hour. Many of my poems are senseless, yet many others are quite good. Mrs. Marjorie Donn, I believe, did quite a good job as leader of the Thursday and Friday groups.

Your criticism was quite harsh and rude, for we tried very hard on our poems.

Please try, also, to remember that we are children in only 3rd to 6th grade.

Many poems are more convincing than others, I know, but I think that if a "breeze that only blows because the previous line ends in Trees" is so terrible, Mrs. Donn would have told us.

Recreation Review

by Richard Stevenson
Director of Recreation

Men's Slow-Pitch

Rain played havoc with the schedule last week, so only two games were played. Make-up games are being played this week. Games tonight are: Fashion 220 vs. Springhill and the Barbers vs. Klein's. Two games are scheduled for tomorrow night as St. Hugh's tackles Fashion 220 and the Red Shirts play the Barbers. League standings as of Monday are as follows:

|-------------|---|---|------------|
| Barbers | 8 | 1 | .888 |
| Springhill | 7 | 1 | .875 |
| Red shirts | 4 | 4 | .500 |
| Fashion 220 | 2 | 6 | .250 |
| Klein's | 2 | 6 | .250 |
| St. Hugh's | 2 | 7 | .222 |

"Harvey"

The Greenbelt Players presentation of "Harvey" was a well received production. The audience, though small in numbers, was enthusiastic in applause. The Players are holding a meeting next Tuesday, June 29 at the Youth Center at 8 p.m. to make plans for future productions. All interested persons are cordially invited to attend.

Class Registrations

Registration will be held next Monday, June 28 at the Youth Center at 9 a.m. for the following classes:

- Swimming Lessons
6 years old and up
- Archery Lessons
8 years old and up
- Tennis Lessons
8 years old and up
- Gymnastics
6 years old and up

Summer Playground

The Summer Playground Programs, which were so successful last summer, will be continued this year. The playgrounds, scheduled to be held at the Center and North End Schools, will offer crafts, music, games, contests, nature study and creative projects. These playgrounds are well supervised by college students and elementary school teachers. Registration will be at the playgrounds at 9 a.m. Monday, June 28. There will be no fee, except for the cost of materials used for projects. Volunteers are always a welcome addition to the programs. If you are interested in helping, please contact the playground supervisors. Children age six or in the first grade are eligible to register for a summer of supervised fun.

SWIM TEAM NEWS

With a hearty assist from the Recreation Department, Greenbelt swimmers, always strong contenders in the Prince-Mont Summer Swimming League, are ready for their 1965 season. Many swimmers from last year's strong team will be with us again, and Coach Charles Marquardt invites interested Greenbelt children, novice and experienced, to help make this another winning season. He especially invites swimmers living in Springhill Lake, Charlestowne Village, Boxwood and Lakeside North to participate.

Coach Marquardt, affectionately called "Duff," attends the University of Maryland, where he is an honor student. "Duff" is familiar with competitive sports: while at High Point High School he was Captain of the Track Team and

Captain of the Cross Country Team and a county champion in both the Cross Country and One Mile events.

To launch the new season, Coach Marquardt would like all swimmers at poolside, rain or shine, Saturday, June 26, for a 10 a.m. chalk talk. As the game little Rosemary team bows out of the League the team faces an exciting dual-meet schedule with fierce competitor in the University Hills Team.

All Greenbelt residents and all Greenbelt Municipal Pool members under eighteen years of age on June 1 are eligible for Coach Marquardt's Greenbelt Swim Team. Outstanding opportunities exist for swimmers in the eight and under age group. No youngster interested in competitive swimming should miss the Saturday meeting.
